

Dear Dave,

Thank you for your kind letter of congratulations on my confirmation as Director of Central Intelligence. I am well aware of the fine work you and your colleagues in AFIO have been doing in support of the Agency and the Intelligence Community and I am pleased that the association has made such good progress in so short a time.

I would be delighted to be a speaker at your convention. Unfortunately I have a heavy commitment earlier that week which would make difficult my attending on the opening day, 15 September, but I believe I could be present for the luncheon on 16 September and suggest we plan on that date.

Again, thank you for your invitation and I look forward to meeting you.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Dave,

I am well aware of the fine work you and your colleagues in AFIO have been doing in support of the Agency and the Intelligence Community and I am pleased that the association has made such good progress in so short a time.

I would have been delighted to be a speaker at your convention, but unfortunately I have already made major commitments for that week which will prevent my attending. I sincerely regret this and hope that I will have another opportunity to meet your members at some future time.

Again, thank you for your invitation and I look forward to seeing you on another occasion.

Yours,
